

UNMUTE: Empowering Female Talent to Speak Up

2.5 Hour Workshop

63% of women struggle with their perception of confidence

Created for your female tribe, this interactive female-only workshop explores the unique challenges faced by many females when speaking up in professional settings and social environments.

In a supportive and friendly environment, participants will learn to overcome barriers and find their voice.

Through open dialogue and practical exercises, they will identify their personal blockers and learn strategies for communicating with confidence and assertiveness.
